

Prime9 upgrades its newsroom production and publishing systems

May 2026

Summary. Prime9 Network has upgraded its newsroom production and publishing systems to help editorial teams work faster and more accurately across television, web, mobile and social. The new workflow streamlines how stories move from the field to publication, improves collaboration between language desks, and strengthens fact-checking and verification. The upgrade supports the network's growth to nine language destinations while maintaining its standards of accuracy and independence.
