

Prime9 partners with regional universities for a media internship programme

July 2026

Summary. Prime9 Network has partnered with leading regional universities to launch a structured media internship programme. Selected students will gain hands-on experience across reporting, video production, digital publishing and social storytelling, working alongside Prime9's editorial teams. The programme is part of the network's investment in the next generation of language-first journalists and aims to build a pipeline of local talent for newsrooms across nine Indian languages.
